Trade Waste Workers Rights

In accordance with Local Law 56 of 2019, the NYC Business Integrity Commission requires all trade waste licensees & registrants to disseminate directly to employees engaged in operating vehicles or handling waste, and to post conspicuously the following information:

Wages & Hours

Minimum Wage:

- You must be paid for every hour you work, including, in some cases, work before and/or after your scheduled shift and time spent traveling during the workday.

Minimum Wage in New York City:

- The minimum wage in New York City is $15.00 per hour for all workers.
- If your employer is located outside New York City, different minimum wage rates may apply. For more information regarding minimum wage rates in the State of New York, see: <https://labor.ny.gov/workerprotection/laborstandards/workprot/minwage.shtml>.
- For more information regarding minimum wage rates throughout the United States, see: <https://www.dol.gov/whd/minwage/america.htm>.

Overtime:

- If you work more than 40 hours in a week, your employer must pay at least 1 ½ times your regular rate of pay for hours worked over 40.
- For some drivers and helpers, the Motor Carrier Exemption to the Fair Labor Standards Act may apply. For more information see <https://www.dol.gov/whd/regs/compliance/whdfs19.htm>

Maximum number of hours:

Non-Drivers:

- There are no restrictions on the number of hours you are allowed to work within a 24-hour period.

Drivers:

- After a required off-duty period of 10 or more consecutive hours, you may only drive a maximum of 11 hours during a 14-hour period after coming on duty.
- This rule may not apply to all drivers. For more information see <https://www.fmcsa.dot.gov/regulations/hours-service/summaryhours-service-regulations>
